As an advocacy organization leading health system strengthening and reforms in Nigeria saddled with the responsibility of coordinating the CSOs at the national and subnational, has improved on youth involvement. Significant progress has been recorded based on the fact the foundation recognizes the importance of inclusivity, lead by a crop of young adults as bridge between the generations. The success can also be attributed to the readiness of the to engage and harness every opportunity given encouraging more to be given. With more funding to build capacity and strengthen the CSOs coordination at the subnational level, there will be more youth involvement in health systems strengthening and resilient at the subnational levels.
